Beijing, 24.—The fourth day of the world's convention of the Young Men's Christian Association was devoted to various religious exercises and a conference on religious work. The farewell meeting was held in the evening and the convention closed. Addresses were delivered by Count Bernstorff and Baron Bothmer of Berlin, Mr. George Williams of London, the Rev. Dalton of St. Petersburg, Dr. Schaaf of New York, Dr. Welch of Auburn, Captain Legarant, of Sweden, Baron Schleimbach and others. The result of the meeting will be to greatly strengthen the association in European countries. Delegates will leave for home to-morrow. Most of the American delegates will sail on the 27th and 30th from Hamburg for New York.

Their Gratitude.

Boston, 24.—Survivors of the Greeley expedition now in this city have adopted the following, copies of which will be forwarded to those mentioned therein:

We, the survivors of the Lady Franklin Bay expedition, desire publicly to thank the officers and crew of the relief ships for their untiring energy in reaching us and their kindness after we were saved. To Post Assistant Surgeon E. H. Green and H. Eames, to whose untiring attention and professional skill we probably owe our lives, we especially desire to express our gratitude.

Would-be Lynchers.

Lynchburg, Va., 25.—The Lynchburg Home Guards are under arms awaiting orders from the sheriff of Amherst County to resist the threatened attack on the jail. Under great exasperation Eldridge Morris, a prominent young farmer of that county, on Saturday, threw a boot jack at Lou Green, a negro woman, broke her skull and she died. The assaults were provoked by gross insults to his mother. A posse of citizens guarded the jail last night. A body of negroes assembled near the court house but no demonstration was made. Trouble is feared to-night.

England and Germany.

St. Petersburg, 24.—The Novois, reviewing the strained relations between England and Germany, cordially acknowledged England's recognition of the right of Russia to reap the fruit of her sacrifices in Central Asia. England, the paper says, is enjoying a similar right in Egypt. Nothing has been done by Russia to humiliate England for the benefit of Germany. The humiliation of England would disturb the balance of power in Europe.

Horses Burned.

Cincinnati, 24.—The Commercial Gazette's Cincinnati, Ky., at 1 o'clock this morning the Abdullah stables were burned, and a score of fine race horses perished, among them Long Branch, Chestnut Wilkes and Jersey Lily. Different owners had horses quartered in the stable. W. H. Wilson places his loss at $50,000. The total loss is estimated at $100,000, mostly horses.

Small-Pox.

Ashantie chiefs asked that the country be annexed to the English possessions because of its notorious cruelty.

France and China.

Paris, 24.—It is hoped the Chinese trouble may yet be arranged under the auspices of Bismarck. It is regarded as a noteworthy fact that Baron De Courcel, French ambassador to Germany, was summoned to Paris on Friday and returned to Berlin on Saturday with Le Folg Pao, Chinese minister. Baron De Courcel was overheard to remark to a member of the Chinese legation at the depot, "Let us hope the journey will be favorable to each of us."

The bombardment of Foo Chow began at 2 o'clock this afternoon and ceased at 8 p. m. Only one Chinese battery replied. The report that two French vessels were sunk during the engagement is not confirmed.

Shanghai, 24.—Foo Chow arsenal was destroyed yesterday after three hours' bombardment by Courbet's squadron. Seven Chinese gunboats were sunk; two escaped. The European settlement was undisturbed. Of the Chinese men of war which entered the French bombardment at Foo Chow. One was stranded and had her back broken, and the other met with no mishap. The French recommenced firing to-day, directing their shots against the Pagodas. It is surmised the object of the renewed attack is to entirely obliterate the place. French transports are shelling the villages on the heights around the arsenal.

London, 24.—A Times Foo Chow dispatch dated Sunday, 3 p. m., says: The French shelled the barracks and camps near Guanito. No resistance was made to the attack. The consulate buildings were looted by Chinese soldiers who were in uniform and armed. The French chief of staff reports the loss of life by the French of six men. The Times correspondent believes this estimate is untrue. An English pilot was killed during the scene on Saturday night when the French opened their heavy fire and it is believed sank one of their torpedo boats. The bombardment is described as of a most sickening character. The Chinese fleet lately on the Min river, with the exception of two ships, was entirely blotted out. No surrender was allowed disabled and sinking ships. Their guns were silenced, but they were shelled for hours.

London, 25.—Admiral Courbet opened fire at 2 p. m., and the Chinese replied almost simultaneously. The dockyard arsenal fired immediately, but with only partial success. Eleven vessels formed the Chinese fleet. The French kept up fire on the arsenal and neighboring buildings, forts, barracks and villages until 6 in the afternoon, although the resistance was from mostly light river and coast transports, and was really light. The French had eight heavily armed ships, namely, the Volta, Dugre, Trouin, Delandier, Aspie, Vihore, Loux and Villars. Several Chinese gun boats maintained bravely the fire for about half of an hour when the survivors of their crews leaped over board. The combat was really ended in five minutes. The superior French artillery made the contest after disabling the Chinese vessels no fight, but a massacre. This is the opinion of every spectator. Two eighteen ton gun boats of the Chinese fleet fought well, one sinking near the English man-of-war Chesapeake while the other stationed above the junks made a good stand. The French kept up the fire on the arsenal and neighboring buildings, forts, barracks and villages until 5 in the afternoon, although resistance from the batteries ceased about 3. Some French and Chinese ships were engaged in close proximity to the English men of war Vigdet and Champion. At 6 Sunday evening three burning gunboats floated down stream, one carrying French colors. Numerous fire junks were blazing in a dangerous manner, and imperilled the English men of war. Torpedo boats exploded the stern of the Yang Woo transports, and the two sinking gunboats. The scenes on the river as the dead or wounded floated by were terrible. The English saved many of the drowned. The forts lower down are not yet attacked.

The Times correspondent, the only newspaper representative present, was on board the Champion. Calcutta, 24.—The China-France war to the present time has little if any effect upon Indian trade and the money market. It is believed the effect of the hostilities will be slight, unless the war shall become prolonged.

London, 25.—A Times dispatch from Foo Chow this afternoon, says the French frigate entered the mouth of the river this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The white fort opened fire with Krupp cannons while the ship was three miles away. After an hour's engagement the French retired. The Chinese fire was good.

Paris, 25.—A dispatch from Tien Tsen, of yesterday, says the charge d'affaires left there, but the acting consul remained.

The Republic Française says: France will soon seize and retain such territory in China as is useful to her. Chang Pa Lung will lead the Chinese forces against the French.

Cholera.

Marseilles, 24.—Eight deaths from cholera in this city last night. Toulon, 24.—Five deaths from cholera last night. The increase is attributed to the hasty return of inhabitants, especially as a state of infection is prevailing.

Rome, 24.—Cholera is increasing in Italy. In the Province of Cuneo there have been 58 deaths in the past three days and at La Spezia and adjoining villages 70 fresh cases and 48 deaths the past two days.

London, 24.—Two deaths from cholera in the Island of Corsica.

Paris, 25.—Two deaths from cholera at Marseilles last night and five at Toulon. The panic in Toulon is revived and the return of fugitives checked.

St. Petersburg, 25.—Russia will establish a sanitary cordon on the western frontier to prevent people from France and Italy from entering the country. Travelers who left the infected districts of France and Italy three weeks before reaching the Russian frontier will be allowed to proceed. The importation of rugs from countries where cholera is prevailing is forbidden.

Marseilles, 25.—Report of the cholera for the southern departments of France for twenty-four hours: Hercul, seven deaths and one new case; Eastern Pyrenees, twenty-one.

Paris, 24.—The following deaths occurred during the twenty-four hours ending at night in the southern department of France: Pyrenees Orientales 14, Hercul 8, Gard 10, Arde 30. To-day the bulletin from the provinces of Italy shows nine deaths and thirty two cases. There were three suspected cases of cholera to-day at Naples.

Washington, 24.—The United States charge d'affaires at Rome notified the state department of the outbreak of cholera at Spezia. The consul general at Genoa telegraphed: "Cholera suddenly attacked Spezia on the 23d; sixty-one cases last night, 49 fatal."

Cable Clicks.

Disastrous Storm.

St. Johns, N. F., 25.—In a recent storm at Carboneau, two houses were destroyed, and trees uprooted; at Tautecover fifteen fishing smacks were lost. The schooner Petrel and Elizabeth were lost in White bay and a fishing smack with four men and two lady passengers were lost of Cape Broyle. It is reported that a large number of ships were lost in St. George's bay, but no particulars are received.

Burrows' Business.

Rochester, 25.—A schedule of the Burrows estate at Albion, as filed in 1879, the date of Burrows' death shows the estate was $1,750,000. The safe of the bank was opened to-day. Examiner Williams refuses to reveal the contents. Eliza Glenn commenced an action in the Supreme Court for the appointment of a receiver for the First National Bank.

New York, 25.—The schedules in the assignment of Hatch & Foote were filed August 8th, but were today made public. Liabilities $1,497,316, of which debts of $3,548,900 are secured; nominal assets, $1,132,299; actual assets, $297,871. The assets consist entirely of railroad stocks and bonds, mining and other securities, including a small amount of government bonds. The greater portion of these securities are pledged as collateral security for various loans.

Frost.

Boston, 25.—Dispatches received from the various parts of New Hampshire, Vermont and Connecticut report heavy frosts last night. Crops were damaged in many places.

An Unblemished Complexion is, like a sweet voice, "an excellent thing in a woman." Where it does not exist naturally, it may be imparted by artificial means. "GLENN'S SKIN PREPARATION" removes all the unpleasant effects of dust and perspiration, obliterating blotches, tan, and all other discolorations of the skin; more than this, it gives a healthy tint to the cheeks, and a lustrous whiteness and smoothness to the neck and arms. It is the fashionable cosmetic at the watering places, and as science vouches for its harmlessness, no lady need be afraid to use it. Beware of counterfeits. See that "C. N. CATTENTON, Proprietor," is printed on each packet, without which none is genuine. Sold by all druggists at 25 cents; three cakes, 60 cents. A fitting toilet accompaniment is "HILL'S INSTANTANEOUS HAIR DYE," which changes gray or any obnoxious color to a beautiful black or brown in the space of a few minutes, and contains no mineral poison.

WAXED! WAXED! WAXED!

Three Victories and Three Waxes—Even all Round!

The following dispatches, which are self explanatory, were received on Monday, tell the tale of defeat which met the salt Lake team at Butte on Sunday and Monday:

[Special to THE HERALD.] BUTTE CITY, M. T., August 24, 1884.

The weather to-day, when our second game with the Butte nine took place, was all that could be desired. There was still a good attendance, not less than 2,000 persons being present to witness the contest. The result of the game was another decided victory for our opponents, as the score, at the termination of the game, showed but four runs for our team to thirteen for the local nine. Despite the loss of the two games, however, we are in good spirits and feel confident of making a better score to-morrow. H.

BUTTE CITY, M. T., August 25, 1884.

We start home to-morrow after having suffered three straight defeats. The game yesterday, however, was not so discouraging. We cannot help the belief that had our team been in a less damaged condition, the outcome at this place would not have been so unfortunate, to-day's game giving ground for the belief. The day was very windy, but a close game resulted, the Butte nine scoring 15 runs while we made 14. We expect to reach home Wednesday.

We learn from a private letter written by one of the players to Mr. Hoag and manager of the R. D. that the Blues left Wood River after gaining the three victories in that section, in a very dejected condition. Tibbets was laid up by a blow from the ball, and was rendered absolutely valueless. Goldring had a thumb nail large as another man's finger, in the first game at Butte, played on Saturday. West pitched the first innings, and three balls were sent from the bat to Baker at short stop, but owing to his bad finger all three passed him and went into the field. Barker pitched after that, and nine runs were scored on him in the first innings. Hedges was to have caught in the second game, a circumstance—as back stop, a position he never plays—which tells to what extremity the team must have been reduced. The Butte nine is spoken of as a magnificent one, all regular Hercules at the bat.

The Christian Murray.

The following is given as special to the San Francisco Bulletin. If Governor Murray can afford to have such a thing published over his signature, every white man can afford to pass it by without comment:

[Specially telegraphed to the Bulletin.] Salt Lake, August 22.—Governor Murray to day sent the following dispatch to the Governor of Tennessee:

SALT LAKE, Aug. 22.

Gov. W. B. Hale, Nashville, Tenn.

Dispatches state that you are exerting yourself to vindicate the laws in the matter of the murder of Mormon missionaries in Tennessee. I thank you for this action. The charge of preaching polygamy does not excuse murder. I trust that you may bring the guilty to punishment, thereby preventing such lawlessness in Tennessee or elsewhere. Lawlessness in Tennessee and Utah are alike reprehensible, but the murdered Mormon agents in Tennessee were sent from here as they have been for years by the representatives of organized crime, and I submit that as long as Tennessee's representatives in Congress are to say the least, indifferent to the punishment of offenders against the national law in Utah, such cowardly outrages by their constituents as the killing of missionaries sent there from here will continue.

RE H. MURRAY, Governor.

Shameful.

It is pitiful in the extreme that girls, on the verge of womanhood, should not know how to conduct themselves. There were six or seven in the seats assigned to the strangers in the Theatre on Sunday, who reported themselves in such a frivolous manner that one might have imagined them present at a burlesque rather than solemn and impressive services over the remains of two murdered members of the Mormon Church. Their conduct was shameful in the extreme, and they must certainly blush for shame at their own brutal—for it is brutal the circumstances connected—conduct.

Sudden Death.

News reached this city on Sunday morning of the finding of the body of Nathaniel A. Woodbury in a house where he had been staying near Park City. The cause of death is not stated, though it is believed to have been intemperance, as it is known he had been drinking heavily for some time past. Deceased was well-known in this city, and in deed throughout the country, and in Davis and Weber. He was a school teacher and taught in several of the district schools, the one with which he was connected last being that of the Second Ward. Five or six weeks ago he went to Summit and Wasatch counties for Cottrell & Lynch, dealers in wagons and farm implements and made Park City his headquarters. He was well-educated, and enjoyed the respect of those who knew him. Mr. Woodbury came to Utah from Salem, Massachusetts, many years ago. His mother still resides at the old home. He married here, his wife being a daughter of Thomas J. White, of Harrieville, Weber County. He a widow and several children reside in the Second Ward, this city, and it is understood they are in indigent circumstances. Friends are interested in the body, which is in charge of Undertaker Pennimore, at Park City, will be brought here for interment. Deceased, when he came to Utah, was a member in good standing of St. John's Lodge, A. F. & A. M., Boston, but whether he retained his connection with the order is not known. It is certain that he united with some of the lodge here.

A Complicated Dam Business.

The dam trouble at the point of the mountain is growing. There are seven or eight interests in the dam affair. Utah County people think if the dam plan were out of the river entirely, they could utilize thousands of acres of land now under the waters of Utah Lake. The Utah & Salt Lake Canal Co. want the dam boards in all the time, in order to irrigate large tracts of land on the other side of Jordan. Salt Lake City, and the East and North and South Jordan canal companies, although only wishing to use the dam in the winter months to store up water for the dry seasons, are not willing to have the plank removed entirely by a dam site, though after a short March list, they would let the dam water flicker. Salt Lake County looks on severely, and says: "I am sworn to protect every dam interest within my borders."

The relative positions of the dam litigants may therefore be briefly stated as follows: Utah County want have a dam; the Utah and Salt Lake Canal Co. don't give a dam; the other canal companies would build a dam; Salt Lake City don't care a dam, and our county—well, it doesn't think the claims of Utah County are worth a dam.

Another Knife.

A man named Mike was on the wagon on Monday. A dispute arose between him and a Swede named S. to wages. The Swede wanted $2 per day, and Mike would consent only to $1.50. Hot words followed, and Mike pulled a knife and threatened to gore the trembling Swede, who finally left on a dead run, Mike throwing the knife after the retreating form. Later Mike is said to have secured a gun to get revenge on the Swede and calling out across him turned loose on his wife, whose life he also threatened. The Swede, scarcely knowing the exact condition of his health for the same, made his complaint. In the evening the police got after Mike. He saw them coming, and guessing their mission, trotted from his house, ran through lots, jumped over fences, the police at his heels, or willing to be. The pursuit went to 2:30 when that he discarded his coat, but taking to the open street the officers were too many for him and he was nabbed. He meditates a lasso.

For Bellevue.

A jolly party left Monday for Bellevue, Idaho. It was composed of Judge John A. Hunter, Charles Popper, Esq., Postmaster John T. Lynch, J. C. Conklin, Esq., Boyd Park, Esq. and Mr. F. C. Horn. They are all accompanied by their wives and families, and they expect to make things interesting. They go to visit the Queen of the Hills, a big mine of the Wood River region, in which they are all interested. It is also under food that the new concentration works to be operated in connection with the mine will be started during the visit of the party.

The Championship.

A notice in Sunday morning's issue stated that the Blues, now in Montana, were playing for the championship of Utah and Montana. We would be pleased to learn whom they had the championship of Utah from, as they have been defeated by the Red Sox every game this season, as well as by the Ogden Athletics.
